

BULLETIN 010

Assistant Chief Shop Steward TechOps (Alberta)

February 6, 2020

Brothers and Sisters;

During the last executive meeting held on February 3, 2020; the executive came to an agreement to create a new Assistant Chief Shop Steward TechOps (Alberta).

This new position will report to both Chief Shop Stewards in YYC and YEG. The duties of the role are to include (but not limited to):

- be the main liaison for all issues related to tech ops, GSE and logistics and supply within Alberta
- responsible for grievances, union representation, payroll issues, CBA enforcement, endorsement course (LOU 9) enforcement, scheduling issues, OT issues/bypasses
- all general inquiries and issues that would fall under shop committee responsibilities as related to tech ops, GSE and Logistics and Supply. The committee member would be the main contact for all Tech Ops, GSE, Logistics and Supply shop stewards.
- be in attendance at all general meetings located in their city unless excused as per the LL1681 Bylaws
- present a report at these meetings as well as provide a written report for meetings held in the opposite cities
- attend all NSCM as a tech ops representative of Alberta
- attend all Level II Tech Ops grievance meetings as well as any Tech Ops related arbitrations

This position is open to all members employed by Air Canada in TechOps, GSE or Logistics and Supply. Any member wishing to stand for this position can do so in person at the General Meeting to be held in Calgary on March 3, 2020 or by filling out the self nomination form attached.

Please do not hesitate to contact myself, or any of the Chief Shop Stewards if there are any questions on this matter.

In Solidarity,

Robert Nolan
President
