

BULLETIN 034

Resignation and Appointment of New President & Vice President Nominations/Election

December 3, 2020

Brother Robert Nolan has recently decided to step down as President of the Executive Board of LL1681.

The process of replacing the President is outlined In the current IAM Constitution, Article C, Section 2 ..."and in case of death, removal, or resignation of the president, shall become president and serve as such until after the next regular election and installation of the successor in office." As a result, effective immediately, Brother Russ Dillon assumes the office of the Presidency.

Subsequently, the office of the Vice President has become vacant. Nominations for this position will take place during the general membership meeting, scheduled for January 5, 2021. Any member who is unable to attend the January meeting, but is willing to stand for election, may complete the attached form and forward it to a member of the executive prior to January 5, 2021. All members willing to stand for election must comply with the provisions of the IAM&AW Constitution and LL1681 bylaws. Also, in accordance with OC 865 Article B, Section 4(a): "a member who experiences a layoff during the six (6) month period prior to the date of nominations is exempted from the qualification 'working at the trade' and, therefore, may run for office."

If an election is required, it will be held in February 2021. Members meeting the requirements of the I.A.M.& A.W. Constitution Article II Section 3, may request an absentee ballot by completing the attached form. Please be advised that members can request an absentee ballot due to COVID-19 concerns, by checking the box 'I am confined due to a verified illness.' All requests will be validated. More information will be communicated in a future bulletin.

In Solidarity,

Eljay Camponi
Recording Secretary
IAMAW LL1681
recordingsecretary@iamaw1681.ca

International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers
Northern Crossroads Local Lodge 1681
Box 152 2000 Airport Rd NE
Calgary, AB T2E 6Z8