

BULLETIN 024

2022 AC TMOS Negotiations Representative Election

October 20, 2021

As a follow up to Bulletin No. 020, issued back on September 13th, 2021, the nomination period for the 2022 Air Canada TMOS Negotiations Representative election concluded on October 5th, 2021. The TechOps representative on the negotiations committee was filled via acclamation, as Brother Tarlot Bhachu was the only member in good standing to declare his intention to run for the position. We are confident Brother Tar will be very successful in his new role, as the passion and expertise he possesses will enable him to skilfully represent the membership at the bargaining table.

The following members have been nominated to represent Airports on the negotiations committee:

Brother Eljay Camponi

Brother Rene Grenon

Sister Kimberly Williams

Accordingly, an election will be required. It will be held on November 2nd, 2021, the scheduled date for the November general meeting. Polling stations will be open from 0800-2000hrs and will be located in YYC at the RCL Chapelhow Branch 284 (606 38 Ave NE, Calgary, AB) and in YEG at the Nisku Inn (1101 4th St Nisku, AB).

As society continues to cope with the fourth wave of the pandemic, providing a safe environment to conduct in-person voting is of the utmost importance, ensuring the health and safety of all members. All local and provincial public health restrictions will be followed, including people wearing masks and remaining six (6) feet apart at all times, including during sign-in, casting of ballots, and while observing the tally. Hand sanitizer will be available, and all pens used to cast a ballot will be wiped down with a disinfectant wipe after each use.

In Solidarity,
